

The Family/Heaven's Magic Watch Out For 666

Watch out for 666!
Watch out for 666!
In a vision of the future
I saw in a vivid dream
That the hour is soon coming
When men will become machines.
A new One-World Order
Will rise and then demand,
That all the World's people
Receive their scientific brand.
I saw a tiny preprogrammed
Computer chip so thin,
Implanted in men's foreheads
Underneath their skin.
Linking all its bearers
To the System's Central Brain,
The Master Computer
That over them will reign.
Watch out for 666
And their computer chip,
That is designed to strip

You of your self-control.
Don't sell your soul.
Men's thoughts will be programmed
By this new technology,
Those who take the number
Their slaves will always be.
So hearken to this warning
If it's life and Love you choose,
Then you'll follow the Truth
And that Mark you will refuse!
Watch out for 666
And their computer chip,
That is designed to strip
You of your self-control.
Watch out for 666
And their computer chip,
That is designed to strip
You of your self-control.
Don't sell your soul.
Don't sell your soul.
Watch out for 666!

Nato come gruppo religioso cristiano nel 1968 in California col nome di Children of God, poi Family of Love, The Family International, infine semplicemente The Family. Di chiara provenienza hippie, proponeva una forma di evangelizzazione attraverso l'amore e il sesso (Flirty Fishing), pratica abbandonata nel 1987; tra gli svariati progetti, quali lo show in radio e TV Music With Meaning, negli anni '80/90 ha prodotto in Svizzera una serie di audiocassette sotto l'etichetta Heaven's Magic.

Nel 1989/90 esce il video/album di propaganda 20 Minutes To Go, con relativa cassetta audio Songs From 20 Minutes To Go, da cui è tratto questo brano.
